Free lunch. Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

7th day:

after breakfast departure and tour of the Royal Palace of Caserta (Reggia), wanted by Carlo III of Borbone that imagined it like Versailles. It is a luxurious structure with 120 rooms and a park that spreads out for 3 kilometres alternated with a series of fountains and the Diana and Atteone falls. Later on we will visit Pompeii with lunch in a typical restaurant of the area and then tour of the excavations that represent one of the most desired destinations of the whole Southern Italy. Before the big eruption of the 79 AD it was an important commercial centre and today after almost 200 years it offers the chance to see what a city of that age was like, because the lava allowed the Pompeii structure to survive over the centuries until us. In the late afternoon departure to Sorrento, arrival at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.
